

Ida Wright

August 11, 1938 - February 4, 2011

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Ida Wright

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Ida Wright

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

FG

“ I first met Aunt Rosey on December 13, 1987; it was the day I married her niece, Malkeh. From that first greeting, I instantly appreciated her wonderful smile and warmth as she welcomed me into the Abel part of Malkeh’s family.

Since she and her sister, our Aunt Yetta Abel (with whom she lived until her death last year) were living in Fort Myers, we were not able to see them too often ... but they did travel to Pennsylvania on occasion to spend time with us and other family members.

Our daughter Aliza’s birth in 1990 was another joyous time for all of us to connect in a very happy way. In October 1995 we spent some time together in Orlando where I had a professional meeting; they came over to be with us and we informed them that Malkeh and I were expecting our second child. After my convention ended we drove down to spend a few days in their beautiful home in Fort Myers. Several months later there was more shared happiness and joy when Tova was born in April 1996.

As the years passed, there was continuous contact and some visits. They eagerly flew North to attend two special events: ceremonies when Aliza became a Bat Mitzvah in March, 2003, and then Tova in April, 2009. It was very special for us to have them share these very important times in the life cycles of our daughters..... what added to our joy was their staying in our home for many days during those visits which presented a true opportunity to share daily life as one family.

Aunt Rosey had a wonderful disposition and outlook on life ... despite the health problems she had to endure, this wonderful woman was always cheerful and happy I will truly miss her.

Fred Goldstein

Fred Goldstein - February 11, 2011 at 12:00 AM