“ I am deeply sadden that you died so young. Although it has been almost twelve years, I can still remember interacting with you as if it were just yesterday. Your witty remarks, great knowledge on a variety of things, affectionate smile and awesome sense of humor can not be forgotten because I enjoy it everyday in our son, Kristopher. I am praying for peace for your loving Mom. I know how much you adored one another. My prayers are also with your dad and your sisters along with thier families during this time. You will be missed, but never forgotten. Love, Kim

“ I never got to meet my dad, Jack. I now hope that I will get to meet my new family. My mom told me that my dad got to see and talk to me when I was a baby, so I know that he was proud to be my dad. I wish I could have met him at an age where I could remember him and remember talking to him.
