To do the useful thing,
to say the courageous thing,
to contemplate the beautiful thing,
that is enough for one man's life.

“ I didn't realize Jack had passed. He was a neighbor and mentor. As a kid I loved to hear about his dive trips, his plane and many other adventures. I must have visited him only a short time before he passed. My belated sympathy to his family. Donnie Carter.

“ "What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments, but what is woven into the lives of others." (Pericles)
Dear Uncle Jack, you have woven so many wonderful memories into the hearts and lives of your family and friends... you will never ever be forgotten. I am so glad we had last Christmas together with the whole family in Herrin and you had a chance to meet Bret. He admired your sense of humor and candor. I have so many good memories of family get-togethers at your farm in Perryville, MO. You were one-of-a-kind. You will be missed by all.
Dear Aunt Ellen, Sherri, Jeannie, Jeff, and family: Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Know that we share your sorrow. We love you.

“ We met Jack and Ellen in their golden years as neighbors. We truly appreciated the opportunities to visit and chat. We were captivated by Jack's stories of diving in the Caribbean, piloting his plane, golfing, his family, his travels with Ellen, etc...

Jack, you had a great and full life, one that we know you were thankful for. We have every confidence that your afterlife will be just as satisfying.

“ Loving husband, beloved father, caring brother, adored grandfather & great-grandfather, and in my case a "sport model" of a father-in-law. I am blessed we shared many "magical moments in time" together for over 30 years. Just last Sunday we sat together on his lanai and enjoyed the view of his nature preserve backyard while drinking Johnnie Walker Black Label (our mutual favorite) and saw a pair of red-shouldered hawks. Jack shared again with me one of his favorite sayings, "life is too short to drink cheap booze." I was blessed to be with you at the very end, and you will remain in my heart forever.....and we will be together again someday. I love you man.

“ Our Dear Jack,
How blessed are we to have known your kindness and generosity.
We treasure the memories of times spent together. Most deeply held in our hearts was your love and care for our beloved Misty.
Your home now. Continue to care and watch over those you love.
We miss you.

“ It was an honor and pleasure to know you, old bud. The hours we spent in a little cart talking, smelling the flowers, feeding the squirrels with the peanuts you always carried in your bag, and just enjoying each others company, will always be with me.

To paraphrase the old Irish toast, I have no doubt that you were safely settled in heaven (scotch in hand) well before the devil knew you passed.

See you at the 20th hole.
