“ Our wonderful grandson, Jaiden Amari Terrell passed away on November 11, 2022. He lived with us, his grandparents, since he was a small baby. His father, Jason Terrell, was a great dad and provided him with love, encouragement, and support. Jaiden enjoyed playing computer games and taking care of his dog Bubsy. He loved going on long walks and playing with him in the yard. Jaiden is survived by his mother Sarah Williams and members of her family. Jaiden's father Jason Terrell passed away on December 8, 2021. We are heartbroken that we have lost Jaiden, We miss him and his dad so much and I hope and feel that they are together now. ”

“ We only knew each other for a few years online, but he quickly grew to be a very close friend of mine. He really cared for those close to him, and he loved when we would chat every single night just to get our minds off of other issues we had. He was a gentle soul that was misunderstood by many, but for those that knew him well, he was deeply cared for. He would often take me and our friends with him on walks with bussy and talk about all the houses he saw. He had names like lamp house 1-2 for houses with lamps on and rave houses 1-2 for party houses. He had a very unique personality that will never be matched. I can't wait to tell him about everything afterwards when we meet again in heaven
