“ I sang this song to you Dad just before you left us... I didn't know when I wrote it that it was about you... Love Always Benjamin

vimeo.com/50691935

We will pass on

from what we've known

and leave these old bones

for Heaven's Arms

Again to be born

into this world

to get our life right

while we're here on earth

Cause Love is today I know

cause tomorrow don't come

and the past is gone

Closed are these hands when we're born and we leave when they're open

with what we've done

Life is not our fault

but it's our fate

Walk with me Lord

on this path you have laid

When illusions come to take me from you

Let me be strong

and live by the truth

Cause Love is today I know

and the past is gone

with what we've done

Baby, baby, baby this world is for changin'

Human your Love is the only thing that's remaining

Your Love

And Love is today I know

Cause tomorrow don't come
