“ *There was no doubt that a brother of the great Greg Kent would be just as good perhaps better. We will never know, they are both gone but their memory will never fade. My youngest is Gregory Patrick Mckay out of respect of Greg. I tell my up and coming cross country running grand son about Greg and now Jimmy Kent. GOD bless you both and your parents. Rest.

“ The only times I was in front Jim Kent on the track was when he was about to lap me. He'll always be the quiet champion. The good ones are always remembered.

“ As a teen growing up in Lawrence, Ma. in the 60's, the names of the Kent brothers Greg and Jimmy were sacred. The world of sports in our city was never as grand. Miss both of you, and all the promise and later life that you deserved to live. Rest in peace.
