I know he was the love of your life but you know he moved from Missouri after doing a year in prison because he decided to grow up and feel up his 15-year-old daughter and his excuse was my real wife was lazy and didn't do anything and my daughter who was 15 was taking over the housework so I started looking at her like she was a wife figure so I ended up crossing the line and touching her that's right those bright bright blue eyes were choma wise and he was married to my mother while you guys for f are doing whatever he's in hell right now celebrate

“ Our deepest sympathies go out to your family at this trying time. Not much you can say or do to ease the pain of one going home this suddenly. Just remember God has a master plan for all of us that at any time he can call us home. Really did not spend as much time together but have all ways loved yall as family! If there is anything good you can get from something this tragic is aunt hazel is rejoicing for one of her children is coming HOME!!! Our thoughts and prayers are with you and family, Love you all and God bless.....

“ Belinda and Family, Nothing I say or do right now can ease your pain. But I want you to know I care and you are in my thoughts and prayers. He often talked about his family he loved each and every one of his children and grandchildren. Mike never failed to brighten my day when our paths crossed. I count knowing as a blessing. I hope it is some comfort to know I care. (Donna from Siggs)
