

James Patrick Uttermohlen

January 28, 1944 - September 18, 2025

James Patrick Uttermohlen (affectionately known as "Bubba" by all grandchildren and great-grandchildren), 81, passed away on September 18, 2025, in Venice, Florida. Born on January 28, 1944, in Norwich, Ohio. Jim lived a life marked by dedication to his country, his craft, and most importantly, his family.

Jim proudly served in the United States Marine Corps from 1962 to 1970. Stationed at Camp Lejeune in North Carolina, he achieved the rank of Private First Class E-2. His time in the military instilled in him a deep sense of discipline and responsibility that would guide him throughout his life.

Following his honorable service, Jim built a successful career as a master plumber. Known for his strong work ethic and unwavering commitment to quality, he took great pride in providing for those he loved. Whether it was fixing a pipe or lending a hand with a home project, Jim was always ready to help—especially when it came to family.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 59 years, Nada Uttermohlen. Together they raised three children: Vince (Alina) Uttermohlen, Stacey (Rich) Tarricone, and Carrie (Blake) Luce. Jim was deeply involved in their lives and later played an active role in the upbringing of his grandchildren: Tim Tarricone, Cody Uttermohlen, Jen Tarricone, Ricky Salina, Ashley Uttermohlen, Danielle Luce, Olivia Uttermohlen, Trevor Luce, and Logan Luce. His legacy continues through his great-grandchildren: Samuel Uttermohlen, Ezekiel Uttermohlen, Elowen Uttermohlen, and Ricardo Salina.

Family was at the heart of everything Jim did. He made it a priority to be present at every sporting event or important milestones in his grandchildren's lives. His steady presence and support left an indelible mark on those who knew him best.

Outside of work and family life, Jim enjoyed fishing—often finding peace along the water's edge with a rod in hand. He also had a passion for woodworking and coin collecting—hobbies that reflected both his patience and attention to detail.

James Patrick "Bubba" Uttermohlen will be remembered as a man who gave generously of himself—through service to his country, devotion to his craft, and above all else, love for his family. May his memory bring comfort to those who knew him and continue to inspire future generations.

A memorial service will be held October 17, 2025 at Englewood Veterans Memorial and Freedom Pavilion, 641 W Dearborn St., Englewood, FL 34223 at 11:00 A.M.

“ Jim and Nada were friends of ours for many years. Nada was Pat's assistant at Grace United Methodist pre-school for several years. Sadly, they are both now gone as is my dear wife Pat. It marks an ending to an era of great friendship. My condolences to all the kids and grandkids. John Vedral
