“ My first memory of Jason was Upstate New Yorker meets Down State New Yorker. Jason started at East Lee about 7 or 8 years ago and I was assigned as his APPLES Mentor. Though some thought is may have not have been a match made in heaven persay, it truly was a friendship that began immediately. Being from NY, "we" always understood one another and the NY attitude, LOL.

We honestly became two peas in a pod and then I got to meet Dina and build a bond with her even though I was Jason;s "School Wlfe."

I will miss his laughter, her giant personality, and his true friendship.

“ I have very fond memories of eating lunch with Jason every day and sharing all our challenges with students! He always made me laugh and we enjoyed many laughs together in the teachers' lunchroom.
