“ Uncle Jay I would give anything to go back in time, to answer that phone call, to have made an effort to see you in the hospital, to go back to that last time I saw you, or better yet just yelled goodbye and I love you from the porch when you asked me to come and talk to you before I left but I was in a rush to leave...had I known I would have stayed...I never would have left your side. I know that you are not suffering anymore and I know that you are going to be looking down on us from heaven and you will be here for me every step of the way through all of the tests, surgeries, pain, and all of the good things too....but selfishly I wish you were still here, I love and miss you and I need you! R.I.P. Uncle Jay!
