“ Even though I had not been in contact with Jean in some time, I have always kept her very near and dear to my heart. I am so sad and heart broken to learn of her passing. Images of her joyful personality, sincerity and big heart come to mind and I will never forget her. Jean took very good care of me when I needed her friendship. I know that she dearly loved her family as she talked about them often. She had a terrific sense and appreciation of the irony in life and often left me doubled over in laughter. My sincere condolences go out to Jean's family and to all that were blessed with her love.
