“ Even though I only met you once. You seemed like a pretty cool person, friend, and mother. I became your daughter Jena's best friend this year. Jena told me stories about you guys, some good and bad but that's how life is. When Jena told me about your passing away, I didn't believe it at first. I was in complete shock but then, I wondered how Jena and Jessa must have felt when they found out. I was there for your daughter during the time that she needed me. Jena and everyone else knows I'm always there for them. The Dotalo's give The Marr family our condolences. I love you guys! Always and Forever.

“ Jen, there are so many broken hearts left behind. We all loved you. Those, eye's the hair, the beautiful smile you had for everyone you met will be missed. I remeber all the sleep overs as a kid, how you thought Al was so funny, and how you and Juli used to love to play dress up. You will be missed, may God bless you. I will watch over your girls, like they were part of my family.

“ We all have different journeys
Different paths along the way
We all were meant to learn new things
But never meant to stay

Jen~ u touched lives in different ways on diff. Levels. Memories of u will keep ur memories alive. May u dance in Heaven with ur Dad...may ur memory remind us to be present in each other's lives daily & take care of one another and be in tuned, we grieve for the loss of flesh and pray for the future of ur spirit and may ur spirit watch over ur girls & remind ur friends to love them unconditionally. I pray that u r not hurtng anymore. Xo

“ To Jenn's beautiful daughter's Jena & Jessa~ I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. Life.....so fragile, Loss....so sudden, Heart....so broken,...in the wake of such a loss, we are haunted by things we dont, and may never understand. Yet the solace we seek may not come from answers. So we look for comfort in the belief of love's everlasting connection. May that love lift you and hold you close, and give you peace. As you comprehend this profound loss, let yourself cry knowing each tear is a note of love rising to the heavens! My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family through this heartbreaking time. There's nothing I can say that will ease your pain but I just wanted you to know I am thinking of you. My deepest condolences.

“ I rememeber meeting Jen at Boomers. When I was introduced to her by Robin she came up and hugged me. After that everytime I went to Boomers she would run over to me and hug me and ask how I was. She was and sill is a very special person. Her eyes and smile could light up the room. No matter how sad you were you couldnt stay that way for long around her. She is missed and was loved by many. RIP JenJen I hope you are at peace now. Love, Alessandra

“ Jen, I have such great memories of you as we were growing up. All of the times we spent together. You at my house or me at your's. Some of the best were with you on Main St. in Fairfield. I will forever hang onto the memories and the gut wrenching laughter we had together the night of our reunion a little over a year ago. It had been many years since I had seen you but it was like it had only been hours. We talked, laughed, hugged and had so much fun that night. I have a great picture of us from that night....laughing so hard that we could barely breath. I know you struggled over the years and especially since your dad died...I am so sorry I was so far away and didn't know that you needed help. I would have been there had I known. I will forever remember your beautiful cat like green eyes, your awesome laugh and the spirit/energy you always made sure was contagious. Rest in Peace...truly....may Peace be with you and your girls. Love ya!!
