

Joan Margaret Alden

June 1, 1944 - February 17, 2024

Joan was an amazing person who touched many lives as an author, a teacher, mentor, caring kind friend and a giving caretaker.

I know you are at peace with the ones you love

Now at last they were beginning Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on for ever: in which every chapter is better than the one before.

“ I have just discovered Joan's writing, as I came upon "Her Widow" in my library job's collection. I looked her up in hopes of being able to write to her. While I now find I cannot do this, I can leave this comment saying my life has been touched and enriched by her life, and the way she loved people. I am forever grateful she became a writer, and her words have been able to reach so many including myself, and the fact that they will continue to be able to do so past this year of her passing, and her reunion with those on the other side of life.

“ Joan was a wonderful friend. We laughed, collaborated, shared our views. I admired her generosity of spirit. Her willingness to freely share her knowledge. I will forever miss the twinkle in her eye. The love in her heart won't be contained in death, it will live on, as will her memory.
