“ Mom,
You were always by our side even when everyone was against us. You saw the truth when no one else could. You believed we would make it out and we did. Because of your prayers and constant support we got out of Guatemala alive. No one in this world will ever be able to come close to filling the whole I feel without. My Mother, my friend, my father, my sister, my brother, my everything, I will continue this fight, for you until the Lord gives me my wings to fly like you 🥹🥹🥹

“ Mom,
My heart is torn without you. Your smile, your advice, your comforting touch, your unconditional love, your faith in God, your caring heart to strangers, your strength, your desire to always stand for what was right, your fire for life, your love of the ocean, your ability to make any plant grow, your dedication to helping others, these are just a few of the amazing things that touched anyone who knew you. Having you as a Mother has been the biggest blessing the Lord has ever given me. May God hold you in his loving arms as I wish I could hold you now 🥹🥹🥹🥹
