

John & Angelina Anderson

March 10, 2013 - March 23, 2013

JOHN AND ANGELINA ANDERSON of Fort Myers, Florida passed away with their loving family by their sides. Both were born in New York City. John W. Anderson passed away March 10, 2013 at the age of 84. Angelina M. Anderson passed away from a broken heart March 23, 2013 at the age of 82. A true love story. John was a computer engineer with Univac and worked in the Quad Cities for 25 years. John helped design the computer the first time our country went to the moon and it was ultimately John's computer that brought back Apollo 13. Angelina (Ann) was active in bowling, hobby, red hats, and Foxy Ladie. John and Ann leave behind to cherish their loving memory 3 children: Lynn Capps, Susan Anderson, and Christine Anderson-Buser; 2 Brothers Richie and Ronnie Passafaro; 1 sister, Stella Blaze; 5 Grand children: David York, Trina Luebbe, and Heather Osterkamp, Nicole Dolan, and Caleb John Buser; and 9 Great grand children. John and Ann are also survived by countless special loving friends from everywhere that were proud to call them their friends. A celebration of John and Angelina's life together was held April 13, 2013 by their community in Ft. Myers. Private services will be held at sea where they wish their ashes to be placed together. May they always have fair winds and following seas. Those that wish to express condolences to the family at this difficult time are urged to visit John and Ann's memorial webpage at www.andersonpatterson.com and sign the guest book.

“ I felt a stab in my heart when I read of the deaths of John and Ann. My family had great times with their family and all the Univac families. They were wonderful people. Loved their New York accent. Fun loving people. just delightful to be with them. Remember one picnic where we made a cake in a cardboard box. So sorry kids - very hard to lose them both. My daughter Kathy saw the notice in the paper and said they looked just like she remembered them. I felt the same way. You kids must have the most wonderful memories. My prayers are with you.

“ I knew John & Ann, John worked with my husband Karl for Univac. They were a fun couple and Ann & I had tea several times at their house in Davenport. We also bowled together. I have thought of them from time-to-time and often wondered what happened to them or where they moved. After years, you know we lost touch, I was saddened to see their obituary in the newspaper. The picture of Ann is just how I remember her, laughing. RIP Ann & John. Your friend, Pat Wagner Edwards

“ Chris: I am so sorry to read of your double loss. I could always tell that, inside, your were--and always will be--Chris ANDERSON. I hope you're living the happily-ever-after or a reasonable facsimile. I'm still here, living next door to unohoo with my terriers. Late last year I finally became a grandmother, at age 68! And it's a GIRL, Madeline Jo Fuhr. Please share my sympathies with the rest of your family.
