“ Dear Grandpa,

I can't believe I'm writing this letter to you.

I guess I never thought about what it would be like when you would no longer be here. You have always been such a key part of my life, and such a steadfast and healthy part; I never let myself consider what it might be like once you were no longer here with us. And now that you are no longer on Earth with us anymore, I'm struggling to accept it. I feel incredibly blessed that you and Nana are my grandparents. I am so thankful that you were my Grandpa. And I'm even more thankful that I was able to live so close to you and to be able to do so many things with you and Nana throughout the years, creating the awesome relationship that I have had with you two. Not everyone gets that. But I did. I had the best Grandpa ever. When you were in the hospital, I decided to make a list of memories, or things that I love about you. I don't want to forget a single thing. Ever. So many of my favorite memories have you in them, Grandpa. When we went to Disney Hollywood Studios, wrestling in the pool at my house, watching scary movies all night together, all the sleepovers, making milkshakes, playing bloody knuckles, etc. As I look through the photos from every year of my life, all the selfies we took, there you were, smiling back at me. You were always smiling. Always laughing. Always happy. That is how I will always remember you. We are grieving the loss of you – the most amazing man. A devoted husband, a deeply loved and respected father, and an adored grandfather. The world seems a little less vibrant without you in it, Grandpa. But thankfully, this isn't the final goodbye. Thankfully, we share the same faith that this isn't the end. I know we'll see you again someday. Someday, I will see your smiling face again, and I will hear your jokes, and see the goofy faces you make. I will feel your tight bear hug squeeze again. I know it. Until then, we will wrap Nana in all the love and comfort that you provided for her while you were married. We will continue to look at photos and remember the amazing times we had with you. We will talk to you and seek your guidance when we need it, and look for you in nature when we miss you terribly. We will keep your memory alive and never, ever forget you.

You were the most amazing grandfather I could have ever asked for. You loved Nana with your whole heart and you cherished your kids. You adored each of us grandkids, no matter how old we were, where we lived or what we were doing with our lives. You loved each of us unconditionally, and without holding back. And boy, do we love you. We love you so much. Hug your parents and your siblings up there, Grandpa. Have fun fishing and rockin out to Van Halen in Heaven. We can catch some fish together and then make a milkshake after while watching a scary movie with the kids.. I love you so much and I will miss you every day.

Until we meet again,

Your first grand baby Booger ❤️

Bri. Gpa adored each and everyone of one of you. Your an amazing young lady. Gpa gave me so many blessings but the biggest one was family. I always wanted a big family and to think that even though he's gone I still have you kids. I am so blessed and thankful. I couldn't imagine if I would have lost my family too. Your letter to gpa was amazing just like you. Always know I love you so much. And I will.

“ Words can never say how sad I am. The miracles that I was shown because of your brother Bobby and sister in law Tina made the transition easier. Everything was as it was supposed to be. Watching your kids and family and friends say goodbye showed me how much you are loved. But I already knew that. I'm so blessed and we had some great times on our travels. It still hurts so bad to let you go but you left me so many blessings. I always tried to do my best for you and give you a life you have never known before. And I will continue to do what I need to do and meet you when my job here is done. Until we meet again save me a place in heaven because so many things that happened since your birthday let me know you will be there waiting for your stubborn wife. I would have loved to have more times like the last few weeks. But I knew you were getting me ready so you could leave and know how loved I was. Rest In Peace my love. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten
