

John Campion, Sr.

May 20, 2013

John (Jack) Jesse Campion Sr. passed away peacefully on May 20, 2013. Born April 9, 1937 in Hyde Park, New York, he was the son of John P Campion and Hazel E. Fowler. Jack moved his family to Florida in 1970 from Poughkeepsie, NY. He enjoyed stock car racing, hunting, and fishing. Jack had a passion and particular acumen for skeet and trap, earning awards and trophies in these sports. An accomplished musician, Jack passed his talent and love of music on to his children. He was a jack of all trades, and master of most. His many skills included an Auto Body Shop that serviced the Hudson Valley, New York. He was a mechanic and woodworker, crafting elaborate signs for homes and business' throughout Southwest Florida. His love of the outdoors also saw him develop a Landscaping and Hay business. If there was something broke, he could surely fix it. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and always willing to offer advice. He was a beloved father and grandfather. He is survived by his wife, Louise Campion, and children, Tammy McInnis, John Campion Jr.,(W) Patricia, James Campion,(W) Michelle and Elaine Carter as well as 2 granddaughters, Sara Campion and Jessica Campion. He was preceded in death by his parents, John P Campion and Hazel E. Fowler. Online condolences can be made at www.andersonpatterson.com. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The NRA Foundation.
