

John W. Hamilton

September 29, 1943 - February 14, 2014

Joe

W. Hamilton

age 70, son of the late Joe W. and Marion Edith Hamilton, was born on September 29, 1943 in Decatur, Alabama and died in Sarasota, Florida on February 14, 2014 with his wife at his side.

His family moved to Sarasota in 1950 where he remained a lifelong resident. After graduating from Riverview High School in 1963 he served briefly in the US Marine Corps. Returning to Sarasota, he began a long career in construction plumbing and worked for several companies in the State as well as worked as a foreman and supervisor for Arrow Plumbing Company. He loved his wife Lynne, his family, the outdoor life, hunting, and communing with nature. He also loved animals, nature and exploring.

He is survived by his loving wife Lynne Pitts Hamilton, brother and sister-in-law William (Bill) and Kathleen of Bradenton and Gainesville, Florida, sister Nancy Ward of Clearwater, Florida, son and daughter-in-law Brian and Mary Hamilton of Rocky Mount, Virginia, stepdaughters Kelly (Jimmy) Smith of Sarasota, and Jenna C. (Douglas) McMurtry of Orlando, Florida and 5 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held in the Little White Chapel at Bee Ridge Presbyterian Church, 4826 McIntosh Road, Sarasota Wednesday, February 19, 2014 at 11:00 am.

Tribute Wall

“ John W. Hamilton

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ John W. Hamilton

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM