“ Hello Cindy and girls: I remember running into John near the bread counter of a grocery store LOTS of years ago when he was still in private industry and him talking about how much he wanted to be a teacher. And he did it! What a great guy. What a loss for you especially but what a loss for the rest of us as well.

“ Dear Cindy and girls, Through the years at Littleton, many families came and went. Yours was one of the ones that I will always remember fondly. John was a trully wonderful man who had pride in your accomplishments. Words cannot express my sincere sadness on your loss. Remember all the times you had together, the hearts John has touched and the memories that you made together. Peace to all of you. Doug Jones

“ I realized that this was Loren "BeBe" Logan's dad! I took care of all of the girls at FUMC downtown. "Miss Tami". I am so sorry to hear about John. I don't think I ever met him. I think it's cool he went to North. I am sure all the girls are beautiful as ever, and you are in my prayers.
