“ We used to love to skate near the front/left side of the pond.
There was a natural spring there and the ice would never completely freeze.
We were not supposed to get close too that area...
but it would always freeze crystal clear and was fun to see to the bottom of the pond.
A simpler moment in time...
Will love you and miss you forever.

May you rest in peace little John.

“ *Cousin Johnny,
I still can't believe this is reality. You were always a happy person who just went with the flow. I'm still in total shock!! Your way to young. You'll forever be in my heart and I will cherish all the memories we shared. I will miss that stupid laugh and your New York attitude. Ready in peace cousin Johnny*💙
