“ Who knew that traveling all the way to Alaska, would allow me to meet such two wonderful people. Especially funny that we live only five minutes away from each other! Not to mention, we would become such close friends.

May be because of all of the traveling you and John did, John was always interested in world affairs. Several times he told me that he was bothered when people did not pay attention to what was going on in the world. Many times, as I read the news paper, I thought of John and felt gutted when I by passed the Nation and World section. From now on, I promise to do a better effort on reading that section and will think of how proud John would be of me!

I love you Hedie.

“ Dear Heide, I was shocked to hear of Uncle John's passing. He emailed me just a few days ago. I lost my dad, Leo, to heart attack in 1977 but Uncle John just kept going with his bypasses - it never occurred to me that he would not survive this latest hiccup.

Please know I am thinking of you and I'm very grateful that Ambor and Caroline spent so much time with you two last year.

Much love,
Kas

“ Dear Heide, we were so very sorry to hear about John. Our thoughts and prayers are very much with you at this time and are also with his family, mostly in Australia, and with your family, mostly in Germany. John's death was truly a shock even though he had mentioned his upcoming surgery. He is truly appreciated and will long be remembered both as a well traveled and fascinating individual and as a forthright and sincere friend even to folks like us who live geographically so far away. We are truly thankful that it was our good fortune to know John. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Heide, I am so sorry to hear this sad news. From summers spent in your pool to "Grandparents' Day" at St. Francis and over-the-fence conversations, I will always think fondly of your sweet husband. We couldn't have asked for a better neighbor! Know that I send my love from here in D.C.

“ John was my brother-in-law and I have know him since he was 12 years old. At 16 I was a chorus girl with a revue company. In the same company were two brothers who did an acrobatic act. The elder was Leo, who became my husband and the 12 year old was John who mostly fooled around in the act and got the laughs. John was best man at our wedding when I married Leo. Unfortunately Leo died at age 50 so perhaps there is some consolation that John managed 30 years more than that. We saw him off on the ship when he sailed to try his luck in Canada. We did not see much of him over the years but always kept in touch. I will miss his letters and occassional visits with Heide to Australia. I just wanted to share something of John's early life. I have written to Heide privately.

“ Dear Heide, So sorry for John's passing. It was so recent that we were still over there, and John still seemed full of life. I'm glad we got to catch up when we did, our time in Florida was one of the highlights of our North American trip, due mainly to the warmth and hospitality of John and yourself.

I'm sure you have many great friends to offer support, locally, domestically and internationally, and all of us Down Under are thinking of you too.

“ Heide:

I am so sorry to hear about John. When I came into the forensic family in 2005 is when I first had the honor of meeting such a wonderful man. Over the years, especially when the unit occupied the Metro office building, John and I would escape from the daily stress of the job, to enjoy a bite of lunch and great conversations. He was always a gentleman and spoke often of the many travel adventures that you both shared. As a newbie when doing the DUI checkpoints, he was always more than willing to make sure that everyone understood what needed to be done. When I look at the parade car, I can see John doing his normal preparations. He was an honorable man who was dedicated to his family, friends and co-workers. He will be missed. May God hold you in his grace to give you the strength and understanding at this difficult time.
