“ I have memories and smiles of moments that I will cherish. The past few days have been reflections of Steve, the boys and love. I think if we leave this world with so many people remembering the gift of your kindness then you have had a life well lived. Thank's for the memories and most of all for being a man among men.

“ I fondly look back to the days when Steve and I played tennis together, on the same team. We had a memorable trip coming back from a tennis match on Hyw #41 south. All worked out well and we savored our victory. Steve - may you rest in peace. You and your family are in our prayers.

Steve was my brother and hero. He taught me to ride a bike, was patient teaching me to fish and saved me from nearly drowning at the Sangamon River one summer. We were a pair that's for sure. I love him and will always miss his smile. God will surely welcome him home with open arms.
