“ Tonight, I will celebrate my brother. The man I will remember always being there for me since i've been alive. Who always looked out for me, and was always there to protect me. Even when I know I could stand on my own, he would be there. We've shared many memories, road trips, vacations, laughs and tears. Being so close to you, especially as we were adults, makes this seem oh so hard. I can only hope that the joys that i will encounter in my years to come, that you will be there in spirit. I'd like that. i remember when you and I would listen to a certain radio show, in which you learned what 1-4-3 stood for. I Love You was never hard for you to say. I heard you say it quite often. But you loved how that was our little way of saying i love you. 1-4-3 was something I came to cherish with every phone call, coming next door when we were neighbors, popping your head in my office at the City, and the day I last saw you, the night before I moved to Raleigh. You will always be with me. 1-4-3 my sweet brother. 1-4-3

“ Carlos & Sonia,

Even though I have only been part of your family for the past 4 years, I share in the sadness of Jon not being there for our future memories. His smile and laught could light even the darkest room. I take comfort in knowing that Jon lived a full life, on his own terms, never caring what others may think. Jon always did what he wanted to do except if there was something he wanted to do more.

Over the past few days I have taken solace in the following quote by Mark Twain: "The fear of death follows from the fear of life. A man who lives fully is prepared to die at anytime."

Jonathan never feared life.

“ I am so sorry and love you all deeply. To Tony, I cant imagine the pain of losing your sibling, especially so suddenly. To Sonja and Merlin, I know the pain of losing a child, but cannot begin to imagine losing one after 40 years of memories. Please know I love all of you and pray that your suffering is short. Jonathan was a fabulous man, and always a blast to be around. I hope you get some comfort by knowing that those around him loved him. I'll be praying for you often.

“ I have to give it to Jonathon he enjoyed many aspects of life alot of us will never experience.He wasn't afraid to go out on a limb and try new things and wasn't influenced by what people did or would think about it.I enjoyed the short time I worked with jonathon and his outlook on life is something more people should have the pleasure of experiencing in this lifetime.Rest well dude you touched alot of people's life's and left way too soon.

“ Dear friends, sorrow and sadness is the first emotion I feel for your loss. After seeing the photo gallery on this web page I now can see that celebration of Jonathan's life is more appropriate. I send out love to you, Sonya, Carlos, and Tony at this tough time. Life blesses us with family and loved ones. It's so hard to be left behind. God's Love heals all sorrow and sickness. Life is so precious and I am grateful for your sharing your friendship.

“ I worked with jonathan at BFI in Columbus. He brought the best out of people. Anyone who ever meet him would say "Man he has a hi pitch voice". Then in no time at all you would here "He sure is a good guy". Everyone who came in contact with him loved him. I too live in Florida now a was able to spend a day with him and my family and another old co worker from BFI. We had such a great day. He won my kids over instantly and my wife adored him. We truly are gonna miss him but we will celebrate him. Love ya Jonathan.

“ Jonathan, nothing will ever be the same without you. Even though the overwhelming pain of you leaving us will never go away, I am comforted in my heart that while we grieve for you here, you are with our many loved ones who have gone before us rejoicing in the glory of God's love. The special bond we shared will be with me forever and I take solace in having absolutely no doubt that when the Lord decides to call me home too, your smiling face will be among the first I see. Until then little brother, I will always love you and miss you more then words can truly express.-Ricky
