

Joseph Daniel Territo

August 20, 1955 - September 28, 2022

Joseph Daniel (Danny) Territo, age 67, passed away peacefully at home Wednesday morning, September 28 in Sarasota Florida. Danny was born in Charlotte North Carolina in 1955 to Barbara Masling and Daniel Joseph Territo. He is survived by his sister Lynette and brother Paul. His parents and sister Becky preceded him. Numerous nieces and nephews survive. Danny went to Glen Oaks High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He played football in high school and then went to University of Southwest Louisiana in Lafayette where he was a trainer for the football team. He graduated from USL with a degree in Physical Rehab and later earned a Masters Degree in social work. While in college he met his wife to be, Cynthia Agnes Ballard. They were married in Baton Rouge while finishing their degrees.

Danny and Cindy moved to Sarasota in 1989 where Danny was an auditor for Arthur Anderson then later as a civilian government employee for Bay Pines VA hospital in Tampa.

He was a software analyst.

After settling in Sarasota they went to either Disney world, Busch Gardens or Sea World nearly every weekend. Danny loved the rides.

Danny was crazy about his antique 1958 Red Corvette Convertible. They entered numerous shows and competitions in Tulsa Oklahoma, Orlando Florida and Gatlinburg Tennessee. Danny and Cindy drove their car in the Orlando Turkey Trot parade for many years.

Danny had Charcot-Marie-Tooth, a degenerative neuromuscular disease, the second rarest of neuromuscular disease. For many years he fought a brave fight with this untreatable disease.

In honor of his bravery and his family, donations can be made to Muscular Dystrophy Association 1611 N Clark Suite 3550, Chicago Illinois 60601.

There will be a Celebration of Life on Sunday November 6, 2022 at 1:00pm. It will be at the Fraternal Order of Eagles 2756, 2926 Wilkinson Road Sarasota FL. Phone number 941-923-6788 for directions.
