“ Joey and Tammy, I am truly sorry about Josh, I can't imagine what you are going through. But I know you will get through it with your family, friends and the Lord above. I can still see Justin and Josh running and playing football in the front yard, if only they could stay that small so we could protect them forever. When I saw Josh about a year and a half ago, he told me he was going in the Army, Justin was in bootcamp at that time and is now in Iraq. Justin will be very sad to hear the news. Again, I am very sorry for what you are going through and you all are in my prayers.
