

Joshua Kyle Mallard

June 26, 1987 - January 2, 2026

Joshua “Kyle” Mallard passed away unexpectedly on Friday, January 2, 2026, at his home in Bradenton, Florida, at the age of 38. Kyle was born on June 26, 1987, in Fairfax, Virginia.

Kyle is survived by his beloved wife, Jennifer A. Mallard; his parents, Rhonda J. Attaway and Richard C. Mallard and his wife, Theresa Gianikas; his maternal grandparents, Arthur G. Samiljan LTC (Ret.), and Shirley L. Samiljan; and his siblings, Corey Gardner, Brandon Gardner, and Anna Maria Mallard.

Kyle was a graduate of Golden High School in Golden, Colorado. Above all else, he was a man of strong faith, baptized in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and he loved his family deeply and without reservation.

Kyle had a passion for life and the outdoors, especially time spent on the water. He enjoyed fishing, playing golf, football, baseball, skiing, riding dirt bikes, watching sports, and admiring square body trucks. Kyle often said there were two types of people in the world—those who get involved and those who don't. He was a man of action. When someone needed help, he was always the first to step forward.

Kyle will be remembered as a kind, gentle, loving, and chivalrous husband, son, grandson, brother, and nephew. He will be missed profoundly by all who knew and loved him.

“My forever love, in this life and in the next: my one, my only, my last.”
