

Joyce Mahon

May 25, 1944 - March 7, 2016

Joyce Mahon, 71, peacefully passed away on March 7th after a long struggle with breast cancer. Born on May 25, 1944 as Joyce Elaine Miller to Harlow and Ella (Putnam) Miller in Rochester, NY, she was raised in Lyons, NY. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Human Ecology at Cornell University and earned a Masters degree at SUNY Oswego. She was a guidance counselor at North Rose - Wolcott High School (NY) and then served as a member and president of the school board. In 1998, Joyce moved to Sarasota, FL, where she continued to pursue her love of the arts, including the culinary arts. She studied and visited different cultures across the USA, Asia, Europe and South America. She was also a member of First Congregational UCC Church in Sarasota. Joyce loved her family more than anything, and was especially proud of her many grandchildren.

Joyce was predeceased by daughter Holly Marshall, second husband John Mahon, long-time companion Larry Rivers, and brother David Miller. She is survived by sons Scott (Courtney) Marshall of Webster, NY, Todd (Jill) Marshall of Skaneateles, NY, Adam (Erin) Marshall of Tampa, FL, brother Richard Miller, first husband Gary Marshall, and grandchildren Will, James, Anne, Adrianna, Julia, Molly, Elsa, Elizabeth and Parker.

Memorial services will be held at North Rose United Methodist Church on March 19th at 2pm, and at First Congregational UCC church in Sarasota on March 30th at 2pm. Burial will be in Rose Cemetery in Rose, NY.
