

Joyce Ann Martiano

December 7, 1946 - August 10, 2022

Words cannot express the shock that we are in that Mom has left us so soon. For all that knew mom, she had such a passion for life, a vibrant way about her, it was what kept mom young. She was a loving, caring, thoughtful, endearing, most amazing Mother to us. Our hearts are heavy as now, we are lost without our Mother, our best friend.

We encourage all to share your stories with us, as we know there are so many lives that mom touched with her beautiful soul.

May you Rest In Peace Mom.

We love you more. 140

“ Nothing can ever replace that laugh or sense of humor Joyce shared with all of us.
She was also greatly efficient and very reliable when I knew her with Lee County. All County Commissioners and the public could rely on her. I enjoyed her mischievous sense of humor. She helped me with information to roast then Commissioner Bill Fussell.
Poor Bill never expected what we served up. It was great fun that night.
I also remember when Joyce helped bail me out with the News-Press re-garding a competition on who could win a competition for who could pick the best stocks. This help hap-pened after she retired from Lee County. Joyce had been involved with picking stocks for her own portfolio. At that time, I had no idea how to pick stocks but I needed to participate. She was my 'ghost' stock picker (thank God) .
Joyce was just a happy, great person. She genuinely cared and enjoyed being with, and helping, other peo-ple. Joyce loved her family and treated everyone else like they were all Martiano's. We all know where Toni gets her terrific personality. Joyce is already missed.
Thoughts and prayers. RIP.
So glad when she was part of our lives.

“Joyce was the embodiment of positivity. Her extraordinary energy and infectious smile was only matched by her love for her family. Trish, Darren, and Toni are truly blessed to have had such a wonderful mother.

I was also blessed to have Joyce in my life from a very young age. She always treated me like one of her own. I remember her delicious meals with the goodies she would bring home from the Italian market. I loved watching her sing as she cooked. Always making us laugh and bringing the family together. She always made me feel special.

If you were lucky enough to have know Joyce, you know what I mean, and you probably were showered with her good vibes and love as well. Her love of God and her faith were exemplary. I know she is in heaven with Dom watching over us all and bringing even more joy to the angels. I will miss you, Joyce. All my love. Linda

“ *Grandma Joyce,
There are no words for losing you as early as we did. You touched so many people in so many different ways. Your beautiful soul taught me to always stay passionate through out life, love always, and to always be strong in your faith. Thank you for teaching me to always be kind to others and that faith overcomes everything. I'll miss your daily encouragement and our talks about nursing school and life in general. I know you're cheering me on, and I can't wait to see you again.*

I love you always!
