“ My deepest sympathy to Brian and family. It just does not seem right for parents to out live their children. She was a wonderful and charming daughter.

May God bless her in her passing, and her loved ones in their loss.

“ My sympathy goes out to everyone in Julies family and her friends. I was not very close with Julie but I did consider her to be my good friend. I'd definitely fight for that girl. I think about her everyday and I hope she watches over me, I know she's watching over Sam. She is missed, and she will never be forgotten.--- I love you Julie!

“ I will never forget becoming friends with Julie when she moved to Bradenton in 8th grade. Right away we all clicked with Julie she was fun smart and hilarious. As the years went on she remained the same ...a genuine person. To her family and all the people who meant the most to her my sympathy goes out to you. Keep her in your heart always as I will and never forget what an amazing person she really was.

“ Brian and family,

We send our sincere sympathy. There are truly no words I can say at a time like this. Julie was always so full of life and energy. She always had a smile on her face when she was younger and hung out with Ashely. I know she will truly be missed by all.

Sincerely, the Tesauro Family
