

Julia L. DiBerardino

October 20, 2012

Julia L. DiBerardino of Fort Myers, passed away Saturday, October 20, 2012 after a short illness. She was born in eastern Connecticut on May 10, 1917 to Alfredo and Teresa Lepri. Julia lived in Connecticut most of her life and moved to Florida in 2005 to be close to family. She graduated from Buckley High School in Hartford, Connecticut and worked at Pratt and Whitney in the 1940's. Later, she enjoyed working as a bank teller at the Connecticut Bank and Trust for many years. There, she met her beloved husband, Silvio DiBerardino. They resided in Wethersfield, Connecticut and traveled extensively throughout Europe, Canada and the United States. She was an avid writer and her political interests motivated her to write editorials for the Hartford papers. Cooking, dressmaking and drapery designing were her favorite pastimes. Julia had a deep faith and compassion for others. Her dedication to family and friends during their time of need became a lifelong commitment. She will be dearly missed by her loving family and her caring friends at Clare Bridge Assisted Living. She is predeceased by her husband, Silvio DiBerardino and her daughters, Brenda Bliss and Dawn B. Eaton. Julia is survived by her daughter, Andrea Celenza and her husband Eugene of Fort Myers. She is also survived by five grandchildren: Matthew W. Mocariski and his wife Karen of Boynton Beach, Lauren B. Hall of Plantation, Florida, Lara Quinn and her husband Matthew of Eastford, Connecticut, Brenna Gagnon and her husband David of Baltic, Connecticut, and Joseph Eaton and his wife Cat of Scotland, Connecticut. Julia also leaves six great-grandchildren: Alec, Breanna, Lily, Evan, Gabriella and Ryan. Funeral arrangements include a viewing at Potter's Funeral Home prior to a Mass at Saint Joseph's Church in Willimantic, Connecticut at 11:00 a.m. on November 2, 2012. Interment will take place in Scotland, Connecticut. Local arrangements have been made through Anderson Patterson Funeral Home in Fort Myers, Florida, which also offers a link to a personal tribute page at: www.andersonpatterson.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made, in her name, to the American Diabetes Association.

Tribute Wall

“ Julia L. DiBerardino

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Julia L. DiBerardino

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM