

Julian Savigne

July 4, 1958 - March 28, 2011

Julian Jose Savigne, 52, of Sarasota, Florida passed away March 28, 2011.

Julian was born July 4, 1958 in Santiago de Cuba, Oriente the son of Luis Ramon and Maria "Blanca" (Garraus) Savigne. In 1965 the family immigrated to the United States via Spain.

Julian graduated from Sarasota High School, received his Associate of Arts Degree minoring in Business Administration from Daytona Beach Community College, and both his Associate of Science Degree minoring in Aviation Safety and Bachelor of Science majoring in Professional Aeronautics from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, where he attended at Prescott, Arizona and Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Julian was a licensed Commercial Pilot with 8000 hours as Pilot in Command, Zenger Miller Certified Facilitator, Dupont Certified Safety Facilitator, ATSSA

Certified Florida Advance Work Zone Traffic Control Inspector, FDEP Certified Storm Water Inspector, ELB/US Healthworks Certified Occupational Safety Facilitator, National Transportation Safety Board Certified Accident Investigator, and Master Scuba Diver.

Julian's employment included: Administrator for Raytheon Aircraft, Broker and Pilot for Flight Source International, U.S. Jet Sales, Tom McCune Aircraft Sales, and Florida Flight Center, Marketing and pilot for Baker Electronics Honeywell Aerospace Division, Safety Manager for APAC/Ashland, Certified Substitute Teacher for the School Board of Sarasota County, and owned Wet Jet Pressure Cleaning.

In addition to his love of flying, Julian enjoyed all water sports, skateboarding, snow skiing, tennis, baseball, football, photography, art, horticulture, playing guitar, singing, was an aquarist, and motorcycle enthusiast.

Julian leaves to cherish his loving memory, his parents Luis and Blanca, 3 brothers Luis III, Alfredo, Francisco, 1 sister Maria Walker, 2 nephews Luis IV, Christian, 3 nieces Lindsay, Emmalee, Ashley, 5 true friends Kathy Horton, Ron Soto, David Caballero, Michele Chilson, Dory Martin, and his beloved dog, Dutch.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at Saint Jude Catholic Church on Saturday April 9th at 11:45 a.m.

Julian found comfort in 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Julian loved and was loved.

"If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but do not have love, I have become a sounding [piece of] brass or a clashing cymbal. And If I have the gift of prophesying and am acquainted with all the sacred secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all the faith so as to transplant mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give all my belongings to feed others, and if I hand over my body, that I may boast, but do not have love, I am not profited at all. Love is long-suffering and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, does not get puffed up, does not behave indecently, does not look for its own interests, does not become provoked. It does not keep account of injury. It does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. But whether there are [gifts of] prophesying, they will be done away with; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will be done away with. For we have partial knowledge and we prophesy partially; but when that which is complete arrives, that which is partial will be done away with. When I was a babe, I used to speak as a babe, to think as a babe, to reason as a babe; but now that I have become a man, I have done away with the [traits] of a babe. For at present we see in hazy outline by means of a metal mirror, but then it will be face to face. At present I know partially, but then I shall know accurately even as I am accurately known. Now, however, there remain faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

Memorial donation in Julian's loving memory may be made to Saint Jude Catholic Church, 3930 17th Street, Sarasota, Florida 34235, 941-955-3934.

In addition to attending the Mass, share memories, express condolences, and add photos at www.gendronfuneralhome.com

“ I recently found out that Jose is in Heaven. I sat next to him in class at Sarasota High School Class of 77. He was so nice...charming comes to my mind...and his eyes had this look of a man who knew God....kind....so handsome and real. I remember seeing him here and there in Sarasota....he did light up a room. I feel this saying I heard recently is about Jose....just like a gardener goes into his garden and picks the most beautiful flower there....God did the same. My heartfelt sympathy to all his family and friends. He will never be forgotten. Nina

“ I was saddened to hear of Julian's passing. I first knew Julian through the dentist I worked for years ago. He was a favorite of ours and managed to make us all swoon. :) So charismatic and handsome.
In more recent years he used to come into my Publix downtown and always had a moment and a kind word for me.
I know he dearly loved his family and I offer my deepest condolences to all of you in your loss of a wonderful person.

“ Julian, you would have been so proud to see how your family rallied around you in those last hours at the hospital. When we got the news, Mary & I rushed to get mommy to your bedside. We knew that she had held you in those first few hours of your life and we knew she had to hold you in those last few. Though she did not give birth to you, she always let us know that she loved you as her first born and knew what true love was when she first laid eyes on your beautiful perfect face. Julian Jose Savigne, I was taught to love you (as well as your brothers and sister), not as a cousin but rather as a brother (nursed & loved in the hearts of our other Garraus mother). A piece of my heart left with you yesterday, as we put you to rest. I trust it will be returned hundred fold when we meet again one day in the embrace of our loving God. Rest in peace Julian, knowing how much love there is in the world because you existed. Rosy Sierra-Cohen

“ To the Savigne Family. I offer my sincerest condolences on this loss to your family. Your friendship is cherished by my family and therefore we have also now lost a member of our family. Although I did not know Julian well I do know how much he meant to all of you through the stories you have shared with me. May you find comfort in those fond memories that you collected together. God Bless you all.

“ We wanted to extend our most sincere sympathy on the loss of Julian. We can't imagine how much you will miss him and the sadness this brings. Keep his spirit in your hearts, remember the laughter and good times you shared, the joy in his smile and all the love you have for one another. That can never go away or be forgotten. May Julian's memory fill your hearts and may God's love and spirit bring peace and comfort to all of you. With love,

“ The word "charismatic" is the first that comes to mind when I think of you -- it means "gift of grace; filled with charm." I will always remember the beautiful, fun-loving man who lit up a room with his smile. God bless you ... and your heartbroken family.

“ Its so hard to even imagine you not being here Julian. You were one my husband, Rons very best friends. You truly will be missed. We know you're no longer in pain, but its hard to think of you without our hearts breaking. Your were such a good, fun , lovable person, we'll remember all the good times we had, and all the fun bike trips we took together. We'll always love you.

“ He took me under his wings. He guided me. He taught me life. He protected me. Most of all he loved me. I am sure of that because he always told me. In turn, I admired him greatly and wanted to be like him, but no matter how hard I tried it was not to be, because there could only be one July. My big brother and my hero. July you will be sorely missed and be in my heart and prayers all the days of my life and I will await the day that we are together again.
I LOVE YOU JULY!

“ I am at a loss for words.

I remember our last visit just a few short months ago.

I am sorry I couldn't do more for you..

I will always remember how stubborn, funny and good you were Juli..

I will miss our "check ins" every now and again to see how things are going..

I am sorry I couldn't do more for you the last time we visited..

I am glad I called you..and I am glad we got to speak and see each other one more time..

you will no longer be in pain.. RIP

“ To lose someone as special as you, someone you really love, seems to make time stand still. What moves through me is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. I may not completely understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before I was ready to say good-bye, but little by little, I remember not just that you died, but that you lived spectacularly. Julian, your life gave me memories too beautiful to forget. My thoughts are with you and your family.

“ Dear Julian, I was so sorry to hear that you are gone. I had just met you. And as I told you, I really enjoy spending time with you and talking with you and I meant it when I told you, you are a very good looking man. I know you were in a great deal of pain and suffering, but you are at peace now. I am sure you are in God's arms, and soon you will be playing your guitar and singing with the angels. To your family, my deepest sympathy. May God grant you peace. Jean

a poem of our thoughts by Elisa Lima

Your death caused us grief but the thought of losing you was the true reasoning of our sadness.your memory fills us with times of happiness & laughter just like you always really did . None of us will ever forget you ;you will always be with us in love ; in your memory ;in our hearts. You left us little things to remember you by such as dutch who is just like you he is sweet energetic and loving .your memory lives within us forever and evercause you were a great uncle,son, and cousin.
