

Julie Ann Rodriguez

January 13, 1960 - April 13, 2018

Julie Ann Rodriguez was a beautiful, fun and loving soul. She touched the hearts of everyone she met. As a natural caregiver, her doors were always open, her hands were always giving, her mind was always praying, and her heart was always loving. Through the years she has been there to love, guide, and mentor all of children that were blessed to know her. She has taken in many people throughout her life and gave them a place to call home.

Julie is survived by her husband Edgar, her children Jacob, Anthony, Rita, Ariel, Rebecca and Savannah, her many grandchildren, her son and daughter in-law and her sisters Camilla and Elizabeth. She was a beloved mother, daughter, sister and friend.

Julie enjoyed being a mother so much, that she began a career as a preschool teacher for true fulfillment as a nurturer. This is the definition of who she was; a nurturer, and a mother to all in need.

Those who knew her were blessed by the presence of her infectious laugh, her kindness and her beautiful spirit. The memory of Julie is a treasure that will be kept in the hearts of so many.

Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep

By Mary Elisabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there; I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow,

I am the diamond glints on snow,

I am the sun on ripened grain,

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,

I am not there; I did not die.
