“ So hard to see the pictures of Justin little. So hard to realize he's gone. REQUIEM aeternam dona ei, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat ei. Requiescat in pace. Amen.

If everyone who knew and loved Justin had just one traditional Mass said for his repose...I've got the number of the priest I use for most of the Gregorian Masses done for the group, if anyone would like it. God bless you, Mary and the entire family. Love you.

“ Our beloved Justin will always hold a special place in my heart. Through the years I got to know him more and more and realized just what a genuinely wonderful person he was and had always been. Always smiling, always happy, always caring, good-natured and kind. My heavy heart is sorely going to miss having more conversations and laughs that we got to share and that I will forever cherish. We love you, Justin- may you rest in peace All my love, Aunt Sheri

“ The first time I saw Justin and his Dad was several years ago when they came to VA to visit our family...I watched my nephew who always had good things to say about people, never complained, was kind and lovable, had a sense of humor telling his stories that made us laugh! We are grateful they chose to spend time with their cousins, and family! May the Lord bless and comfort you and all those you love! ❤️ Aunt Snooky & Uncle Ted
