

Justin Lee Parker

May 17, 1996 - March 30, 2023

Justin Lee Parker (26) was born in Clearwater, Florida to Lee Parker and Wendy Henthorne. Justin passed away on March 30th . Justin was preceded in death by his Maternal Grandfather Gerald Wasilewski and Paternal Grandfather Richard Parker and Grandmother Deborah Sloat.

Justin struggled over the years with controlling his depression. Justin always had a smile for the outside world even in his darkest times. He was a kind and giving person with a heart of gold. If you were a friend you were a friend for life. If you needed pulled out of ditch at 3 am he was there. If he saw a vehicle with a flat tire or broken down on the side of the road with people by it he would stop and offer assistance. Everywhere he went he could make friends in minutes. Justin was avid junk collector and loved to pick up what others thought was trash even at a young age. Justin was always bringing home his treasures much to his mother's irritation. He would often say I can fix it you just wait and see. Next thing you know he was riding whatever thing he brought home. If something was mechanical, it could be rigged. Justin had a love for all animals and would try to bring home a stray or two (also to his mother's irritation). Justin was happiest out in Nature. He was always and outdoors kid and as an adult he loved doing things on the water and in the nature. Justin worked as a service tech, and then a Limo Driver until Covid came around. Justin preferred to be his own boss and most recently had his own business doing cleanouts.

Justin leaves behind his beautiful son Stefan David and Stefan's Mother – Felicia Griffiths, also leaves behind his canine best friend Buddy, Lee Parker Father and Sherri Parker (Stepmother), Mother – Wendy Henthorne and Kelly Henthorne (Stepfather) his brothers Austin Parker and Cameron Henthorne. Maternal Grandmother and Grandfather – Nancy and Richard Szala, Aunts and Uncles – Jeff and Karen Wasilewski, Jerry Wasilewski, Brian and Danielle Ksiazkiewicz, Shawn Reardon, Chris Hooper, Wesley Sloat, Darlene and Allen Lewis. “ From the moment I met Justin in his mid teen years, he was full of energy. He had so much potential and carried an attitude of "just because it's broke, doesn't mean I can't fix it!". I promised him and his brother, Austin that I would never expect them to call me mom nor would I treat them like "stepchildren". Instead, I would offer guidance when requested and offered to listen when they just needed to talk or an unbiased opinion.

Over the past several years, Justin and I did have a few conversations on how to manage a situation or just talk about what he was tinkering with that day. He loved his dad without question and it was amazing to watch him grow from a teenager to a young man and build that adult relationship every parent wants from their kids. Justin would regularly call his dad to talk about a project he was working on or to find out what tools could be used to work on his truck. He would even stop by our house on his way back from a limo gig he was working just to say hi.

It is the moments above we will miss the most. My heart breaks for Wendy and Lee. I can't imagine the sorrow they are feeling knowing their son is gone. However, he will never be forgotten as he has made an imprint on each person's heart that he touched.

I wish nothing but peace for you, Justin. While we must move forward in life, we will do so knowing we will see you again when the time is right. Rest easy.
