

Kenneth Walls Knox, Jr.

June 15, 1948 - January 5, 2013

Kenneth Walls Knox, Jr., 64, of Cape Coral, FL passed away peacefully on the late evening of Saturday, January 5, 2013, at Hospice House of Cape Coral. He is survived by his wife of 37 years, Susan Knox, and his daughter, Tamara Knox (28)...As well as his three “sisters” by choice: Valerie Wiggins of New York, Sharon Jones of Pennsylvania, and Debbie Okin of Virginia. Of his many accomplishments, he was proud of the fact that he retired as a Major from the Lee County Sheriff’s Office, where he had the privilege to serve amongst some of the finest men and women in Lee County. His “brothers in arms” could probably tell some stories about his life that he sometimes did not share with the general public or even with his family. After a battle with open heart surgery, congestive heart failure, diabetes, among other issues, he was taken into the care of Hope Hospice who did a miraculous job of caring for him when his daughter and wife could not do so any longer. He fought a hard battle for the past 2 – 3 years and at many times had his friends saying “He’s Kenny... he’ll come through it just fine because he’s a fighter and that’s what he does”. And that he did....right up until the very end. There are many people whose lives Ken touched on a daily basis, and to those of you, his family is sure he would like you to know that you touched him just as equally. Memorial gathering will be held from 2-3pm on Saturday, January 12, 2013 at the Anderson-Patterson Cremation & Funeral Services chapel, 3654 Palm Beach Blvd., Fort Myers. Funeral services will begin at 3pm with David Goins officiating. In lieu of flowers please make donations to Hope Hospice, 2430

Diplomat Parkway, Cape Coral, FL 33909.

“ 1 Peter 5:7 casting all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you. This is one of my favorite verses to reflect. I know life has grief but losing a loved one and never being able to be with them again is really difficult. The thing is, I think he is beside you all the time. He's a piece of you. I had once listened to a widow grieve while she was celebrating life because. That is what I think a funeral is, a celebration of life. She said, 'he was my life.' Our loved ones are piece of us. Just like family so are our friends. Those we miss, but will all ways be a piece of us. God's peace be with you forever and always. -Pine Island Friend.

“ To Kenny, my big brother, you have been well loved by those closest to you. You had one of the biggest hearts I ever knew. I will let you go now, and in your place, when I need you, I will put my arms around others in need, and give them what you gave me. To Susan, you were always the fourth "sister" and happily became Ken's wife, completing the circle and bringing both of you together as one. You and Tamara are forever family. love Deb

“ My dear Uncle Ken, one of the funniest, most charismatic people I've ever known. From the moment you came into my life I was awestruck. I have always been very proud to tell people about my Uncle Ken, you were a hero to me. You went out fighting. God Bless You. All my love Debbie xxx

“ To Susan and Tamara, my deepest sympathy on the loss of Kenny. He had a kind heart,a great sense of humor,and I enjoyed working with him. He was a true friend and always looked out for me even though I often exasperated him. His family meant the world to him. May God comfort you at this difficult time.
