“ Kevin was a great man of God, lover of Amie and the girls, a loving grandpa and a true friend. Kevin and Amie were there through my treatments. Kevin knew I loved windmills and he would ride by just to see if mine was still spinning. He would take it to his house, fix it and it would miraculously be spinning when I would come home. I will think of him every day I turn on my kitchen lights. He was excited that I had found lights I liked and would enjoy them. He was always taking care of the things that needed repaired and would mow my grass faster than anyone ever has. We might start off talking about repairs and yard work, but we would always end up talking about the Lord and his goodness. I will miss his wit, his smile and kind words. I will see him again and that is the hope I have as a Christian. I praise the Lord for letting me have him my life and I will always love him. Girls, y'all in my prayers and I know the Lord will get through this trouble. Caryl H

“ I haven't hung out with Kevin since high school but have always had great memories of hanging out and fishing. Kelly, may you have comfort in knowing that he is in God's house now watching over you. I pray for healing strength and healing for you and the family.

“ Kelly and katibug, it's been a few years since I've been in contact with Kevin but he was always there to lend a hand when asked, a genuine good guy. May the care and love of those around you provide comfort and peace to get you through the days ahead. My most sincere condolences.
