“ *I remember a blond haired, blue eyed very sweet little boy. He was always very kind when I would see him in later years. I remember seeing him and his family at the Rose re-union at Uncle Dee and Aunt Faye's house. He would always speak when I would run into him in town. Last time I remember seeing him was at Kroger. Will miss his smile. Rest in peace Kevin. May you find happiness where you are. Cousin Lynette ( Winnie Lynn/Rosebud)
To Kevins' family I'm so sorry for your loss. You are in my prayers.*

“ The first time I saw Kevin pick up a guitar was when he was in Junior High School, and I don't think he was ever without one since then. He had a dream to be a professional musician or song-writer, a goal he never reached, but at least he found a creative passion for something that he enjoyed.

Kevin suffered a lot in his life, and I am happy that his suffering has ended. I hope my little brother rests in peace.
