Kyle Benjamin Hood

November 15, 1971 - August 15, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Kyle Hood, 52, of Lynn, MA on August 15, 2024.

Kyle served almost 20 years as a Massachusetts firefighter, first in Marblehead, MA and then in Cambridge, MA, before retiring a few years ago. He had a passion for film, literature, writing, and nature and was a self-taught carpenter and electrician who enjoyed building and fixing things.

Kyle is survived by his mother, Deborah Hood; sister, L Hood and her husband, Robert Pantano; sister, Katie Hood and her partner, Joseph Grant; best friend, Sarah Hanson and her family; stepmother, Jeanne Hood; stepsister, Ameer Webster; stepbrother, Ron Webster; and numerous aunts and cousins. Kyle was preceded in death by his father, William M Hood, and his beloved dog, Lucy.

Kyle is deeply loved and missed. May he rest in peace.

"For in that sleep of death what dreams may come,
When we have shuffled off this mortal coil..."

(Hamlet - Act 3, Scene 1)

Tribute Wall

“ I first met Kyle in 7th grade, and we became fast friends. Over the years, through thick and thin, we were sometimes roommates but always friends. I will remember his wit, his curiosity, his compassion, and his courage. He is the bravest man I ever knew. He loved hiking and camping and spending time outdoors. He loved movies and politics and philosophy. He loved Shakespeare. He loved his dog Lucy with all his heart. He was a kind man in an unkind world. Of all the souls I have encountered in my travels, his was the most... human. Good night and good luck, old friend. See you on the other side.
