

Laura Leveroni Whipple

February 20, 1957 - May 19, 2016

On May 19, 2016 in Englewood FL, as heaven gained an angel, her family suddenly lost a beautiful, caring, smart and talented person, our Laura. Laura was a loving, amazing daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt, grandmother and friend. She is survived by her parents Arthur and Barbara Leveroni, formerly of Weymouth and Middleboro, now of Leesburg, FL. Laura was a graduate of Weymouth North High School(1975), Suffolk University and Massasoit School of Nursing. Retired from Boston Visiting Nurse Association, she was a skilled certified Wound, Ostomy and Continence nurse.

She leaves her grieving family; loving husband Paul McDonald Quincy and Englewood, FL, three sons whom she loved dearly and was so proud of and their spouse/significant other, Chad (Liz), S. Weymouth, Michael (Jessica), Myrtle Beach, SC, Joshua(Molly) ,Fitchburg, loving sister, Deborah(late David) Joralemon, Amsterdam, NY, and brother Michael (Rosemary) Leveroni, Rockland. Laura is also survived by 2 cherished grandchildren Camryn Whipple, Myrtle Beach, SC and Avery Whipple S. Weymouth, a nephew Matthew Leveroni ,niece, Kimberly (Tom) Leveroni-Stanley and Aunt Joan Gorgone, Mellenville, NY. She will be sadly missed by the McDonald Family ,Boston area and Marshfield, and many friends and relatives. She was the granddaughter of the late Katherine Shaftoe.

Laura loved S. Weymouth, Englewood beaches, Bingo, Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy, The Food Network, finding bargains and most of all people. She loved talking whether it was to a stranger in line at the store or her sister on the phone; she was a great conversationalist and a voracious reader which led to corneal transplants for two people. Above all else she loved her family. Donations in her name may be made to the Venice FL Audubon Bird Sanctuary PO Box 1381 Venice FL 34284. She loved the birds in FL and those little Englewood bunnies will miss their morning carrots.

Join us for a Celebration of Laura's Life at Chad and Liz's residence on Sunday, July 24th.

Stop by to share memories starting at 2:00 pm & throughout the afternoon. Arrangements have been entrusted to Gendron Funeral Home; to leave a condolence or memory visit www.gendronfuneralhome.com.

Think of Laura but laugh don't cry. I know she wanted it that way.

Rest in Peace, dear Laura.

Tribute Wall

“ Laura Leveroni Whipple

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Laura Leveroni Whipple

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ God has once again got another angel on his side. i worked at the BVNA with laura and she was always a caring, loving, conscientious, professional certified wound nurse. who helped so many in her professional career. not only patients but us other nurses as well. may aGod hold her in the palm of his hand. prayers to laura's family. Terri Niven RN, VNAB <3 <3 <3

terri niven - July 26, 2016 at 05:42 PM

“ So sorry to read of Laura's passing. I hadn't seen her in years but always remember her from Union Street School helping the kids in any way she could. Always ready to volunteer to help! Rest in peace.

Joan Long, S. Weymouth

joan - July 20, 2016 at 07:55 PM

DS

“ We have so many wonderful memories of Laura and her entire family with many of them being during the Christmas holiday. Will treasure these memories of her. Her laugh was infectious and yes she so loved her family. The night skies have gained a shining star and heaven an angel that will forever watch over us. To Barbara, Arthur, Chad, Michael & Josh - hold on to your memories as they are something that no one can take away from you. With Love - Deb (Re) Sullivan & Tom Sullivan

Deb Re Sullivan & Tom Sullivan - June 17, 2016 at 07:45 AM

FN

“ So Sorry to hear of your loss. I know you have many wonderful memories of times shared together. Hope the loss will fade soon and the memories shine brightly in your heart.

Fred and Marylou Nichols - June 07, 2016 at 10:12 AM