“ *Heartfelt sympathy to Alene, Warren, Ricky
I am truly sorrow to hear this very sad news. Larry and I went to High School together for a time and of course we grew up together at Camp Roosevelt!! We bumped into each other many years later at a store in Great Neck where I was looking for ski goggles! Never saw him again and always wondered how he was doing!! I see he had a fulfilling life--sympathy to his wife, children and grandchildren too!

“ When the shadow of the day turns the world to grey, it is then I reflect on being so young and innocent, spending time in your apt in Queens with Rocky. Things were never as we planned, but when we see each other again please remember.. When my time comes, forget the wrong that I've done help me leave behind some reasons to be missed.

And when you're feeling empty

Keep me in your memory...

Leave out all the rest

Miss ya Bro

“ My Dearest Brother Larry,
I cherish the memories I have of us growing up in the Bronx. We would make tents from blankets and sheets and dress up in crazy clothes and makeup. Remember how we also dressed up our dog Tex?

I miss my handsome wonderful Brother..I love you....Arls

“ I feel so fortunate to have met Larry through his wife, my dear friend Marcia. He was not only a sweetheart, but as handsome as can be! My memory of him that brings tears to my eyes as I write this, was when he came to visit me with Marcia not too long ago...he sat on a chair in my living room and let my two French Bulldogs jump up on him and lick him- he couldn't say much at the time, but his huge smile said it all! He won over my heart that day!

“ *My Dear Brother:
I know you can read this, so I write this from the deepest part of my soul.
We've had our differences, and we've lost our way as brothers. But I want you to know that I've always respected you for what you've accomplished in life, and have always loved you because of our good memories we had growing up.
As matter of, Larry, it is because of you that I can "throw a mean screw ball!" When we used to play stickball in the school yard, you were a heck of a "southpaw" that my curveball wouldn't work for! Life has thrown us both "curveballs," but we will play again, on a better field, and surely renew of "brotherhood!"
I will miss- God bless you!*

“ Larry MOBY Moon, no one will ever know how much I will miss you. I've been crying since I heard and am glad you can't see me in tears like this, because it would ruin my tough image with you. You were the best friend I ever had, and this is as sad as anyone could ever be. In the next few days I will share with your family and friends and tell stories of all the great times we had together playing ball, traveling across the USA for 3 months in my VW camping all the time, going to Woodstock, how I named you Moby, and I could go on forever. Man, we were joined at the hip for so long, I thought we were attached, I will do my best to enlighten everyone with our experiences together and some great stories of what best friends mean to each other. You impacted my life like no other and it won't be the same without you. Wait for me Moby, and I'll see you on the other side, and we will pick right you up where we left off. Life won't be the same anymore and I love you forever man. Billy

“ Uncle Larry I?m not sure you knew this, but when I was a little girl I remember standing by the elevator door in Rego Park waiting for you to come home from war. You were my hero and by far the coolest, best looking guy I knew. I would get so excited to see you and spend time with you. These are the memories I will cherish in my heart today and always. I love you!
