“ Bly, I love you so much. I am happy that you are free of pain and are in a better place but i wish you were still here with us. You've always been a dad to me. Always good to me and good intentions. I know you helped me get to Florida yesterday and I'm glad I can be here to say my final goodbye. Watch over all of us and keep the grandkids safe. We love you so much.

“ Bly, I may have only met you a few times since I've known Carly. But one thing I grew to know that your family love you very much and as you loved them. You were a great and very amazing person and will be truly missed. You were taken early But I know you will always watch over your wife/family and will always be there for them R.I.P

“ Due to location, my family only spent time with Bly on a handful of occasions. Funny though...from the first time we met him back in '03 he treated all of us like we were family. We bonded and connected from the beginning, Bly had a wonderful sense of humor...or at least our kind of humor...so there were always good times and laughter when we were together. He always let us know that we were welcome to whatever they had...no matter how much or little that was. Bly also shared a birthday with my oldest son...somehow that gave them a special link. Bly will be truly missed by my entire family and our hearts are with my sister-in-law Jackie and her family...especially the little ones for they have the hardest time understanding. Love you guys bunches!

“ Where do I even start, You were taken to early from us. We shared many of good times and have been through our family ups and downs. But all and all you were good to Brittany and I and of course mom, I am going to be so strong for mom cause I know she needs me right now more then ever, I hope your looking over her and letting her know everything is going to be ok. Kilee is heart broken and dosent understand why her Gampa is gone but one day she will understand, I told her angels took you from us and she wanted to make sure that you had wings when they took you. I love you Bly I never thought I would have to go through something like this anytime soon. Please watch over all of us and just know I will never let Kilee (your little turtle) forget how much you loved her, We love you! I will see you one day.
