Lawrence “Larry” Lare Jr.

March 11, 1957 – October 11, 2025

Lawrence Lare Jr., 69, of Fort Myers, Florida, passed away on October 11, 2025. Born on March 11, 1957, in Dayton, Ohio, he was the son of Lawrence Lare Sr. and Lillian Lare, both of whom preceded him in death.

Larry had no spouse or children of his own, yet he was a father figure to many. He is survived by his brothers, Winn and Jeffery Lare; his nephew, Dustin Lare; and an abundance of devoted friends who loved him like family.

Over the course of his life, Larry wore many hats and excelled in every one of them. He was an accomplished gourmet chef, a successful business owner, an artist, and a trusted security professional for numerous Hollywood actors and rock stars. Before his civilian achievements, he proudly served his country as a Sergeant in the United States Marine Corps.

Larry’s passions were as varied as they were vibrant—surfing, fishing, painting, collecting memorabilia, and decorating were just a few of the pursuits that filled his world. He had a “larger than life” presence and could fill any space with laughter through his charm, clever antics, and sharp wit.

Handsome, well-groomed, deeply caring, and effortlessly charismatic, he was a role model to many younger men who looked up to him.

Larry leaves behind a legacy of humor, loyalty, creativity, and love. He will be remembered not only for the life he lived, but for the countless lives he touched.
