“ How do you put special memories into words? As a Meals on Wheels volunteer, I had the absolute pleasure of serving Mr. O'Donnell every Thursday. I so looked forward to those days. He would meet me at the door in his wheelchair and we'd talk on and on about everything and anything. He always had a smile and never complained about a thing. None of us really know who's lives we've touched, but I can say that he certainly touched mine. How blessed I've been to have met such a gentle, caring man. May he forever RIP. My Thursday MOW run will never be the same.
