

Leon Boltuch

December 3, 2014

Leon Boltuch, 92, of Naples FL, formerly of Meriden, CT passed on December 3, 2014. He was born January 23, 1922 in New York City.

He attended CCNY prior to his military service. He was stationed in the Pacific theater during WW II specializing in communications and was honorably discharged. He was very proud of his service accomplishments.

He married his best friend and life long companion Leona Tarr in 1950. They moved from New York to Connecticut where they raised their family. He owned Herco Art Lamp Mfg. located in Wallingford, CT until he sold it and retired.

He loved to travel and had a love for fine dining, especially at Cibao Grille.

He was exceptionally knowledgeable about the stock market and financial workings. He was a wealth of knowledge, and enjoyed sharing the information he knew with others.

He was very proud of his family and never missed a chance to share a story of their accomplishments and adventures. He treasured making a phone call to catch up or just ask about how things were going- Nothing made him happier than when his family was all together.

Leon is survived by his wife Leona of 64 years; his children , Alese Clark and her husband, Bill Killion, Noel Boltuch (Melissa), Deb Kurtz (Peter) and Dyan Fazzino (Richard); nine grandchildren, Brenda, Ronda, Karen, Matt, Andrew, Dana, Rachael, Leah; and six great-grand children, Mandi, Nick, Amber, Alisha, Connor and Alex. He is also survived by a sister, Harriet Appell of North Carolina.

The family would like to send a special thanks to John Matz and the staff at ARA Dialysis Center for all their help.
