

Lillian Doris Edenfield

May 23, 1916 - October 21, 2012

Lillian Doris (Granger) Edenfield, 96, of Fort Myers went to be with her Lord and to rejoin her beloved late husband of 62 years, Romie, on October 21, 2012. Born in Manatee County on May 23, 1916, she was a proud native of the state of Florida and Lee County resident since 1934. Doris attended school in Ft. Meade, FL where she met the love of her life, who lovingly called her “pumkin”, and lived in the same house on Glenwood Ave. for 67 years. They served the Lord faithfully at the Marsh Ave. Church of God. Doris played the piano for the church services and directed the girls’ choir. She and Romie left a legacy of faith in God to their family and all who knew them. They later became regular attendees of First Assembly of God. Doris loved to travel and visit with friends and relatives. She owned and operated Edenfield’s Florist for 40 years. At the young age of 92 she was still ready to go shopping anytime. Left to cherish her memory are her son, Jarrett Edenfield & daughter-in-law, Juanita Edenfield; daughters: Betty (Tom) Macon and Carmalita (Bill) Dowling. She is Mema to: grandchildren, Jarrod & Helen Edenfield, Jason Edenfield, Sherry Macon (Dr. John) Patrick, Marlon & Stephanie Macon, Kevin & Lisa Macon, Pastor Evan (Rachel) Dowling and Lyndsey Dowling (Adam) Jerabeck; great grandchildren: Ashley (Jovan), Kaleb, Rachel, Ethan, Genievive, Marielle, Samara, Mila, Austin, Christian, Noah, Jonas; and great great grandson, Romie. She is Aunt Doris to numerous nieces and nephews and is loved by many wonderful friends. Pastor Dan Betzer will officiate the celebration of life at 11:00 am on Sat., Oct. 27, 2012 at First Assembly of God, 4701 Summerlin Road, Fort Myers. Family and friends will be received at the church one hour before the service. Interment will follow at Ft. Myers Memorial Gardens. Arrangements in care of Anderson-Patterson Cremation & Funeral Services. Please visit www.andersonpatterson.com to express condolences to the family.

“ When I was young, I moved a lot. I'm not talking ciites or even states. I mean countries. Every night I would cry for home, but there was always that sliver of hope, telling me, You can always come back. It will always be there. But even as I returned years later, I always found that the land that I had loved changed. It was not the land I had grown up in, and it never will be again. I have never felt the loss of a person. I could never imagine that degree of loss; the agony, the tears shed. All I can do is try to relate. You can always go back to the person; their footprints forever trapped in that old picture or their remains in a grave. But it will never be the same. All you have are your memories. I hope that you can be with the person that needs you the most, and treasure those memories. That way, you can celebrate the person's life and the person that they used to be. It will mean more than any stupid Hallmark card.

“ Doris and Romie made many weddings beautiful with their floral and cake creations including my own. May the memory of your mother (and father) bring you many joys in the days to come and help ease the sorrow in your hearts.
