

Linda B Ferber

February 6, 1949 - January 4, 2020

Linda Benson Ferber and her husband Ralph have lived in University Park, Florida for the past eleven years. She was originally from Nashville, Tenn., and her son Todd McNeely still lives in the Nashville area.

Linda was born to Mildred Hitt and Edwin W. Benson, Sr. She was the third of four very close children. Her undergraduate degree was in education. Later she received an advanced degree in speech pathology and worked for Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools.

Linda and Ralph lived in Brentwood, Tenn., before moving to Florida in 2009. They travelled a great deal, enjoyed boating, played bridge and loved their family and friends. In addition to her husband and son, Linda is survived by brother Ed Benson, Jr, (wife Jamie) of Nashville, Tenn.; sister Vicki Benson Buchanan (husband Ron) of Lakewood Ranch, Florida; sister-in-law Rhonda Flowkes Benson of Goodlettsville, Tenn.; Ralph's children Kristi Murphy and Frank Ferber both of Florida, nephews and nieces. She is predeceased by her parents and her brother Jim Benson.

Linda's interment will be in Nashville. Memorial gifts can be made to the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network.

Arrangements are under the direction of Gendron Funeral & Cremation

“ My heart is broken. Linda and I were good friends and cheerleaders together at Madison High, in Madison, Tn. I remember her smile, and how we laughed all the time. When we were cheerleaders we got to stand next to each other. We had more fun. She was always so positive, and so much fun to hang out with. I love you Linda, and God bless you. Your dear friend Gloria
