“ My deepest sympathies are with Lisa's family and friends. Lisa and I had MANY funfilled times in our young lives. We met when we were both in our 20's....way back when Lehigh was really "Little Lehigh." There wasn't much to do for two 20 year old females here at that time, however, Lisa and I always found "interesting, exciting" things to do. We played, talked and sure laughed alot. When we were "settleing" down, I got a job in personnel at the hospital. Of course one of my first hiring was of Lisa as a pharmacy tech. She had no experience so others were leary of my discussion. She proved me right. Lisa was an amazingly intelligent, FAST learner and real team player. Everyone enjoyed working (and playing) with her. She was loads of laughs. Again, later in our lives, Lisa worked with my father (the Col. or Glen Aspinwall) at Preferred Properties now Caldwell Bankers. She was as spirited at that job as she always was. I know her friends and family (Terri Gizzi) and all will agree with me with Lisa I learned about hope, love and most of all LAUGH! I will sorely miss my friend.

“ Dear Family, I was shocked to hear of Lisa's death. She was a wonderful Guardian ad Litem child advocate. We know why you loved her dearly--we loved her as a volunteer and for her good works. She knew the importance of helping others! Best Regards, Mary Ann Brownstein

“ My heart goes out to the family. I will remember Lisa as a vibrant, colorful, woman who embraced life. She generously gave her time to Women's Council of REALTORS (we had some fun at state & national meetings) and the real estate profession.

“ In this world, where life can be a struggle to survive, you meet a lot of good people along the road. But rarely do you find a friend with whom you naturally click, who you can trust and rely on. For me, Lisa was that friend. At work, she brightened each day, and after hours we would talk and laugh until we could hardly breathe. She was my best friend here in Florida, and I am devastated. Lisa, "This world was never meant for one as beautiful as you."
