“ To Lisa and Caleb, please watch over your family from heaven and give them strength to move forward. You are certainly two of God's finest angels. To Dave, Pam, Carla and Andrea; I am thinking of you constantly and praying for you. You are wonderful people that should never have experienced this pain. Like so many of the people that care about you I wish I could help to take this pain away. Think of what Lisa would want for her sisters and parents and use that idea to continue living for her. The Eddy family is the strongest family I have ever had the pleasure of knowing and I love you all dearly. Love, Grant, Amy and Ally Fichter

“ When Lisa first started working for LCEMS I got the privledge to be one of her partners on the truck. We also got the opportunity to both be pregnant at the same time, and share our stories of our little boys. Just the other day she was boasting about her little man Caleb and showing me pictures of him. I will miss all these wonderful times together with Lisa. Lisa was such a joy to be with, always had a beautiful smile on her face, and was a beautiful person inside and out. I will always cherish the special times we had together, as coworkers and as friends.

Lisa, may you and your sweet baby boy Caleb rest in peace. You will both be greatly missed!

“ *A eulogy for Lisa.
You lived with adversities but yet you were there to be compassionate...you had abuse but you gave love, you were hurt but you gave compassion, You had love and we all felt it. you had hope but hope was not in your future. You cared about the ones you treated. you hoped for a better outcome for the o...nes you cared for but you yourself became a victim of the very thing we all try to prevent and for this you have made the ultimate sacrifice for the many that go before you and those that will come after you. I have seen far to many of these situations before but you made the ultimate sacrifice. I hope and can only pray that you and your son are in the hands of the Lord that you paid respect to and that your heart(which will always be with the ones who knew you and the ones that loved you) rest in peace for ever. It was a pleasure to know you, work with you, God Bless you and Caleb for all Eternity. We will all miss you and keep you forever in our hearts and prayers.*

“ Lisa,
It was an absolute honour to serve amongst you at LCEMS. We started together and I thank you for the memories, the laughs, and the words of encouragement during our academy days, especially EVOC.

You gave me the courage when I never thought I had any and were an ear, a shoulder, and a protector. The advice has always been and always will be appreciated. You're beautiful on the inside and out. May You and Caleb Rest In Peace. My condolences to your family.

I miss you. 2/1/2007, Forever.

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Lisa in the past. We would share stories and laugh. She had a gift for making people feel good about themselves and the world. She loved Caleb more than anything and never stopped talking about him. He was the sparkle in her eye. She and Caleb will be greatly missed. I can only offer my deepest sympathies to the friends in family. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

To Lisa and Caleb: When those we love have left this earth, we still can feel them near. We'll see a picture, hear a song, and it's just like they are here. And when we call upon our faith, when we believe and trust, we know the ones we care about are always close to us. You will be in the minds and hearts of many and never forgotten.

“ As I walk this long, winding road, I think about what's come and gone. I think of innocent childhoods filled with game and laughter, learning and love.

As I walk this long, winding road, I think about those that have impacted my life. For good and bad, they make up the tapestry of my life.

As I walk this long, winding road, I reflect on your life and it's short but measurable impact it's made on others.

But sometimes the road forks and two people who have walked the same path must go in separate directions.

Though we travel apart now, I will remember your kindness and wisdom and that infectious smile and keep you close in my heart. For on the road of life, you are the North Star and you're guiding me home.

You will be missed Lisa. Our hearts are broken now that you're gone. And my sympathies to Lisa's family and friends.

“ Such a tragedy. My memories of Lisa in Paramedic class were of a determined caring young woman who worked very hard to achieve her dream of working for EMS. RIP Lisa and Caleb

“ Our heavily-weighted hearts go out to all of the immediate family, along w/ all of her loved ones and close friends.

"To those I love and those who love me"

-While I am gone, release me and let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears; be happy that we had so many beautiful years.

-I gave to you my love, you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.

-To grieve for me a while if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust; It's only a while that we must part. To bless the memories w/in your heart.

-I won't be far away, for life goes on; so if you need me, call and I will come.

-Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.

And if you listen w/ your heart, you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.

-And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you w/ a smile and say...."Welcome Home" (Author unknown)

“ I've only met her a couple of times. But I know her and Caleb through Carla's stories and devotion. May God bless them both and hold them within His light.

“ Lisa and Caleb, you both will be sorely missed at LCEMS. Your dedication and service has now transitioned to your higher calling. May you rest in peace, and know that you are loved. Keep that smile Lisa--it's something we will never forget. We at EMS lift you both up to our Lord, and may you serve him just as well as you served us.

“ May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face. May the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, May the Lord hold you in the palm of His hand - Gaelic Prayer.

Lisa, I count it an honour to have worked alongside you. You were a fine partner and a credit to your profession. You will be greatly missed. My sincerest sympathies to your family
