“ My sincerest sympathy for the family of Louise King in North Fort Myers on Sacramento Street. I was their neighbor for several years, and Mrs. King was the kindest most hospitable lady there ever was. I still have the big Granny Square she crocheted for me to build an afghan onto. She had a very attentive son with his significant other who took good care of her, God bless them for that. I have often thought of her over the years since I moved away, and I hold her in my prayers now. She is in a place where she feels good and no longer has difficulty walking.
