“ My cousin Lloyd came in on leave when my Mother passed away 1970. I will always remember him as a gentle giant like his brother Dan.

“ My name is Anthony and I have a ton of memory's with loyde but the ones that stick out the most are definitely how caring he was, he was grumpy on the outside but did everything he could to make others around him happy even if it meant sacrificing his time. When I was much younger I used to stay with them for a summer/week/few weeks and he would always be playing games on his computer whenever he had a chance to. He used to let me sit next to him or on his lap and show me this bookworm game where you make big words and fight different creatures. Loyde will be loved and missed forever

“ My husband, Quineth, and I met Loyde and Lyne at Lake Tansi Village in Crossville, Tennessee. We spent a lot of good times with them sharing meals, playing cards and games as well as traveling. Loyde was a very competitive person and could not stand to lose, haha. But he was a very giving person too. He always shared if he won anything! And you never visited Loyde and Lyne unless you came away loaded down with something. He will be missed! Heartfelt sympathy to Lyne.
